Make it permanent: Use a pen whenever you write a check. If you use a pencil, anybody with an eraser can change the amount of your check and the name of the payee. No blank checks: Don't sign a check until after you've filled in the name of the payee and the amount. If you're not sure who to make the check payable or how much something costs, just bring a pen—it's much less risky than giving somebody unlimited access to your checking account.
